

The Schiele

Museum of Natural History

Commitment Statement of Board

Trustees of the Schiele Museum, Incorporated, is a private, not-for-profit Board of Trustees, created and organized to promote the Museum's well-being and its standing in the community. To do this, each officer and member of the Board of Trustees accepts the responsibility to become familiar with the Museum's collections, programs and staff; to create and adhere to a constitution and bylaws; to help establish basic policies insuring the responsible and efficient operation of the Museum; to approve annual budgets and major projects; to provide long-range objectives for the Museum and to foster community support for the Museum and its activities.

Please raise your right hand, say "I" and your name and repeat after me:

As Trustees of the Schiele Museum we agree with and pledge to support the organization by accepting these responsibilities.